How to Participate in the Promotion & Procedure

Patrons must visit the Cash Cage, request to join the promotion, and present a valid government-issued ID to verify their registration with the Encore program.

Cage personnel will verify the patron with their Government issued ID and Encore account number, locate the patron using CMP, and place the code 'ThisThat' onto their account. If the code has already been awarded to the player an error will occur and restrict the patron from playing.

After verification of their Encore Rewards membership Cage personnel will supply the patron with a single plinko disc and request the patron to proceed to the plinko board located at the front of the Cash Cage.

Cage personnel will witness what position the disc has resided in after the patron has dropped it down the board. Three values will be available at the bottom to determine how many ballots a patron will obtain for the draw. Patrons have the ability to win between one (1) and 3 (three) ballots per day and a maximum of 123 ballots during the promotion period.

Ballots will be signed and disbursed to the patron in accordance with the number of ballots won from the Plinko board game. All ballots disbursed will be tracked in order by cage personal to the original printed and numbered entry form on the tracking sheet located at the cash desk. Patrons must fill the ballot in its entirety, must be legible and deposited in the draw barrel.

Patrons must be in the facility on the day of the draw. The winner of the promotion must provide Government Issued Photo Identification to claim a prize.

The ballot barrel will be stationary in front of the Cash Cage during the duration of the promotion.
